Baby Brains

10 MONTHS

Make reading an important part of your family's routine. Books, read or sung by a favorite family member may have a calming effect at naptime.

They are also improving their motor skills. Let them grab the book, play with it, turn the pages. It doesn't matter if the book is upside or not. They need the practice of movement to make those brain connections.

MEET...

MEET Christina Fasel

This month we are introduced to Sally Klein, the newest addition to the City of Wahoo.

Christina has resided in Wahoo since 2019 with her husband and 4 kids (ages 2, 9, 10, and 13). She grew up just outside of Ceresco and graduated from Raymond Central in 2005. She earned a B.A. of Anthropology from UNL. She began her position as City Clerk on February 14th, 2022. Her duties include recording city council minutes and maintaining all municipal documents among other responsibilities.

The Mystery of Hunting's End* Chosen as 2023 One Book One Nebraska

People across Nebraska are encouraged to read the work of a Nebraskan — and then talk about it with their friends and neighbors. The Mystery of Hunting's End (Bison Books, 1998) by Mignon Eberhart is the 2023 One Book One Nebraska selection.

The Mystery of Hunting's End is a 1930s chiller, inspired and set in the Sand Hills of Nebraska, where Mignon G. Eberhart lived as a newlywed. Smack in the middle of the rolling desolation is Hunting's End, a weekend lodge owned by the rich Kingery family. To that place socialite Matil Kingery invites a strange collection of guests — the same people who were at the lodge when her father died of "heart failure" exactly five years ago. She intends to find out which one of them murdered him. The selection committee for the 2023 One Book One Nebraska enjoyed the concept of a mystery. This is a book that keeps the reader guessing as to who is behind the murders taking place in a lodge outside of Valentine during a blizzard. Why were these murders committed, are any of the guests staying at the lodge safe, and who is the killer? The book is full of colorful characters, including Nurse Sarah Keate and detective Lance O'Leary. The reader is challenged to find clues that will lead to the discovery of who is the guilty party. Mignon G. Eberhart was born and raised in Lincoln, NE. She had a long and celebrated career, writing a total of 59 novels, earning her the Grand Master Edgar Award from the Mystery Writers of America. She died at the age of ninety-seven in 1996.

Libraries across Nebraska will join other literary and cultural organizations in planning book discussions, activities, and events that will encourage Nebraskans to read and discuss this book. Support materials to assist with local reading/discussion activities will be available after January 1, 2023 at <http://onebook.nebraska.gov>. Updates and activity listings will be posted on the One Book One Nebraska Facebook page at <http://www.facebook.com/onebookonenebraska>.

2023 will mark the nineteenth year of the One Book One Nebraska reading program, sponsored by the Nebraska Center for the Book. It encourages Nebraskans across the state to read and discuss one book, chosen from books written by Nebraska authors or that have a Nebraska theme or setting. The Nebraska Center for the Book invites recommendations for One Book One Nebraska book selection year-round at <http://centerforthebook.nebraska.gov/obon-nomination.asp>.

One Book One Nebraska is sponsored by Nebraska Center for the Book, Humanities Nebraska, and Nebraska Library Commission. The Nebraska Center for the Book brings together the state's readers, writers, booksellers, librarians, publishers, printers, educators, and scholars to build the community of the book, supporting programs to celebrate and stimulate public interest in books, reading, and the written word. The Nebraska Center for the Book is housed at and supported by the Nebraska Library Commission.

As the state library agency, the Nebraska Library Commission is an advocate for the library and information needs of all Nebraskans. The mission of the Library Commission is statewide promotion, development, and coordination of library and information services, "bringing together people and information."

LIBRARIANS ARE HILARIOUS

How to Tell That Books are Your True Friends

STEP ONE: Take book and hide.

STEP TWO: Read.

STEP THREE: When everyone comes looking for you, see if book shouts, "Here! They're right here!"

STEP FOUR: We bet it won't.

STEP FIVE: Because books are your true friends.

STEP SIX: Unlike those blabbermouth humans.
